

PreK-Third FALL Sessions

Presenter: Melissa Leach

First Writer's Workshop Institute: (K-3)

This session will be the first in a series intended to guide writing instruction in K-3 in an effort to boost the writing scores of our 4th grade students. This session will focus on how to get Writer's Workshop started, and will include management tips and mini-lesson ideas. This is the first in a 5 part series. In order to attend, participant must be committed to attending all five sessions in the five part series.

September 17: ESC 12, Waco

Session #: 32100

Pre-K Guidelines: Destination Implementation (PreK)

This session will give an overview of the new Pre-K Guidelines and will focus on their implementation! This flight was booked solid last time—make sure you are on board for takeoff!

October 5th: ESC 12, Waco

Session #: 32019

Nuts and Bolts of Balanced Literacy: (PreK-2)

This session will give teachers new to Balanced Literacy an overview of each framework component and a solid understanding of the best practice instruction: to, with, and by.

October 12th: ESC 12, Waco

Session #: 32441

New ELAR TEKS Training: (K-2)

The state standards for English Language Arts have changed. If you didn't have a seat in one of the summer trainings, this is your chance! This session will give an overview of standards to insure success from Kindergarten, to college and career for our Texas students.

October 22nd and 23rd: ESC 12, Waco

Session #: 31975

Writing With the Traits (K-2)

Using Ruth Cullum's work in effective writing instruction, this 2 day session will teach participants characteristics of the Six Traits and how to analyze student writing. On Day 2, participants will learn how to use engaging lessons and activities that support and encourage trait based student writing within a Writer's Workshop format.

October 27th and 28th: ESC 12, Waco Session #'s: 31963 and 31972

Region
Education Service Center
2101 W. Loop 340
P.O. Box 23409
Waco, Texas 76702-3409

For full descriptions look online www.esc12.net or in fall catalog
For More Information Contact Melissa Leach: mleach@esc12.net
254.297.1160